

MUTUAL-RECOGNITION-TREATY- ROVIA-HOKORIA

The nations of this mutual recognition: The State of Rovia, The State of Hokoria.

Preamble

This treaty acts as a mutual recognition treaty to help formalise ties between The State of Rovia and The State of Hokoria. It is to assure that both nations do in fact recognize and respect each other. This treaty also assures that both nations will in fact contact each other formally and help each other during hard times.

Terminology

- 1) "Parties" will be defined as every nation who signs this treaty.
- 2) "Party" refers to either Rovia or Hokoria.

Article One

1. The parties of this treaty will agree on land claims claimed by both parties.
2. The parties of this treaty will agree on each other's sovereignty

- 3.The parties of this treaty will agree to no military aggression
- 4.The parties of this treaty will recognize the legitimacy of each other's Constitution and laws.

Article Two

1. Should one of the parties choose to change the diplomatic relations shared with the other nation, this treaty shall be reviewed and it will be decided if the treaty should be terminated or amended.

Article Three

1. The time between two renewals (which is also the time between the two ratifications of this treaty) will not be specified.
- 2.Both parties agree to make the signing and ratification of this treaty public at their earliest convenience.

Signed:

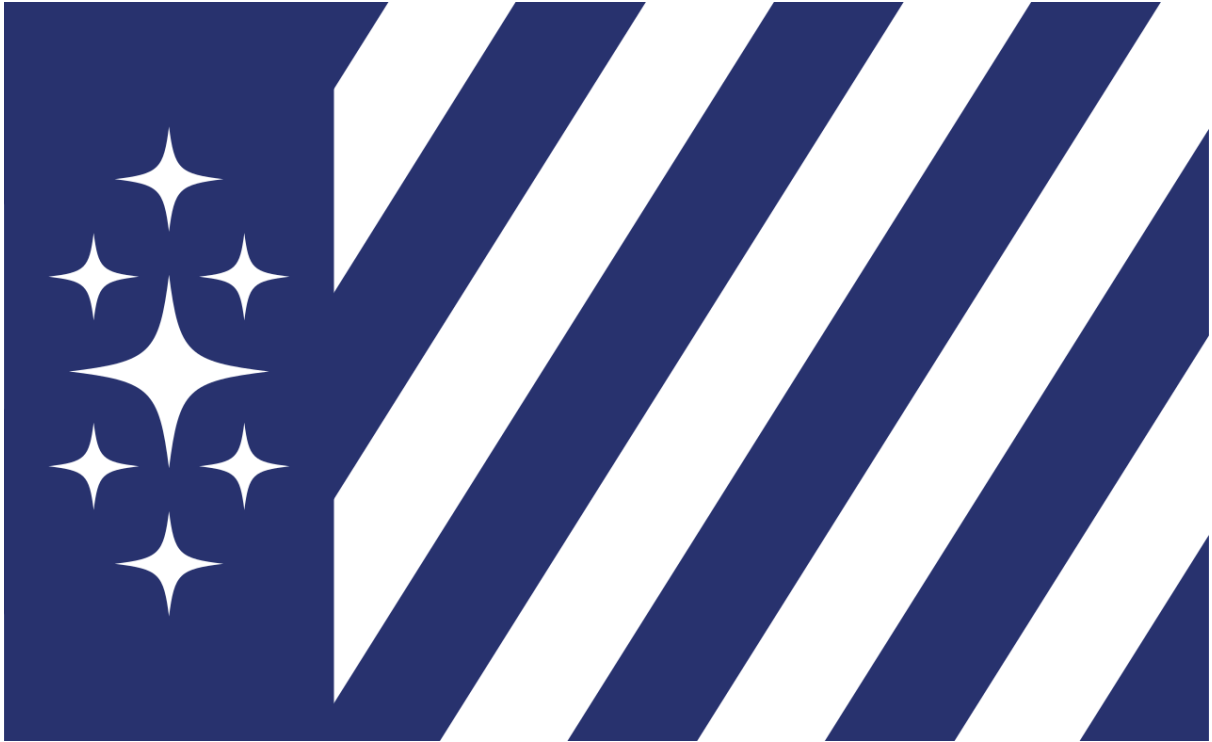

For the State of Rovia:

His Sultanic Highness Al Mu'tazz billah of the State of Rovia
Sultan of Rovia.

المعتز بالله

For the State of Hokoria:

His Majesty Aaron I of the State of Hokoria
King of the State of Hokoria.

Aaron I